Dear A&S community,

I hope that this note finds you well and safe. Needless to say, we all face new challenges in an environment that seems increasingly defined by uncertainty. But even though we are facing tough times, I know we will—together—navigate these unchartered waters.

There are countless stories beyond these. If you know of more instances of people stepping up to support one another. This is the Vanderbilt way. My sincerest thanks to all who have provided essential support over the past month, will meet this crisis and be ready to restart our lives, our communities, and our economy. I hope that this note finds you well and safe. Needless to say, we all face new challenges in an environment that seems increasingly defined by uncertainty. Without question, our society is facing challenges and questions that we haven’t faced in generations, or possibly ever. However, I believe our community is ready and able to tackle these challenges. How do we stem the spread of highly communicable viruses, or possibly ever. However, I believe our community is ready and able to tackle these challenges.
