UAB K-12 Spanish Workshop: Afro-Latin American Culture
Sponsored by the Alabama Humanities Foundation—a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities—and Vanderbilt Center for Latin American Studies

Palenque de San Basilio, Colombia

Time: 3:00-5:30 on Saturday, 8 October 2016
Place: UAB AEIVA Museum (Parking behind museum.)

Language: Spanish  Maximum Enrollment: 25

Registration: Please pre-register HERE by October 1st

Presenters: Graciela Maglia (Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Instituto Caro y Cuervo), John Maddox (UAB), and representatives from the Afro-Colombian community of Palenque de San Basilio

Workshop Activities Include:

1. Brief historical and literary overview of the African Diaspora in Latin America
2. Academic introduction to and first-person testimonies from a 300-year-old community descended from slave rebels
3. Afro-Caribbean dance lesson
4. Afro-Caribbean cooking lesson
5. Classroom ideas and resources

John Maddox and Palenquero Víctor Simarra

Graciela Maglia in Palenque

For more information about the workshop and the affiliated UAB Black Resistance and Negotiation colloquium, please visit:

www.vanderbilt.edu/clas/teacher-workshops/runaway-slave-communities/
For more information about Palenque de San Basilio, please visit:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JgzOITAze3Q