The Tennessee Democratic Party is now accepting internship applications for the 2017 Spring Semester. Our internship program gives young people the opportunity to learn about elections and political operations by providing hands on experience with an extremely focused and dynamic organization. All interns will learn a variety of skills during their internship. Spots are limited. Each new intern will be placed in a specific department based on needs.

Communications: Interns who are placed in this department will learn writing and communication skills and participate in activities including social media, research and writing op-eds and press releases. They will also learn about creating communication plans for specific campaigns.

Political/Organizing: Interns who will focus on Political/Organizing work will learn and participate in activities including political district analysis, campaign planning, and political organizing. Additionally they will be involved in and help organize specific events and activities.

Finance: This position is only meant for one intern. This intern will learn to use NGP fundraising software, assist with fundraising call time and assist with planning and executing fundraising events.

Operations: This position is only meant for one intern. This intern will help keep track of day to day needs of the TNDP office. This includes organizational work and filling systems.

TNDP interns must commit to at least 10 hours a week. Available times are 9-6pm Monday-Friday.

If you have any questions please call Sandra Sepulveda at 615.327.9779 or email sandra@tndp.org. Applicants can apply by sending in their resume to Sandra. Applicants will be required to complete a short interview before being accepted into the program. All applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible seeing as spots are limited. This is an unpaid internship, but we are willing to sign for class credit.

Thank you,

Kris Murphy
