

South
Atlantic
Review

---

Spring 2020

Volume

85

Number 1

---

Journal of the South Atlantic
Modern Language Association

Contents

---

Special Issue: Lorraine M. López

Guest Editors

*Tanya Long Bennett, Cameron Williams Crawford,
Donna A. Gessell, and Laura J. Getty*

Introductions

- 1 Lorraine M. López: A Personal Introduction to an Outstanding Latina Literary and Cultural Studies Critic and Fiction Writer
Rafael Ocasio
- 7 A Note from the Guest Editors
*Tanya Long Bennett, Cameron Williams Crawford,
Donna A. Gessell, and Laura J. Getty*

Critical Articles

- 14 “I Loved to Cook, to Conjure Up My Mother’s Fragrance”: Food, Gender, and Identity in Lorraine M. López’s The Gifted Gabaldón Sisters
Cameron Williams Crawford
- 27 To Tell What Is True: The Short Story as Stark Mirror in Lorraine López’s Homicide Survivors Picnic and Other Stories
Tanya Long Bennett
- 43 Good Woman versus Good Person: Resisting Stereotypes in Lorraine M. López’s The Realm of Hungry Spirits
Laura J. Getty
- 63 The [Latinx] Darling: Lorraine López Reads the Canon
Donna A. Gessell

Reviews

- 82 Daring to be Different: A Review of The Darling
Lyn Froehlich

Contents

---

- 86 “If you are anything like me,” You Don’t Belong Where You Belong: A Review of Lorraine López’s *Soy La Avon
Lady and Other Stories*
Angela Love Kitchin
- 90 Short Story
Careful Interventions
Lorraine M. López
- 109 2018 SAMLA Graduate Student Creative Writing Award: Honorable Mention
Coop
Kristy Maier
- 113 Book Review
From Alice to Algernon: The Evolution of Child Consciousness in the Novel. By Holly Blackford.
Reviewed by Caesar Perkowski