5. Part-Time Status

Part-time status is rarely allowed in the Department of English. It is primarily reserved for students whose financial obligations cannot be met by a department, college, or university award. Students intending to attend graduate school on a part-time basis must inform the DGS upon application to the program. Part-time students must complete all requirements for the degree within six years of beginning the program.