

Japanese Tea Ceremony

A top-down view of a person's hands holding a light green ceramic bowl filled with vibrant green tea. The person is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt. The background is a dark wooden table. In the foreground, there are several items: a white rectangular card with a small green tea leaf and a pink flower-shaped object; a yellow circular object with a green and blue pattern; a round, textured brown object; and a dark red octagonal tray containing several small, colorful tea sweets (wagashi) in shades of green, pink, and grey.

Hosted by:

The Asian Studies Department

Co-Sponsored by:

Vanderbilt Center for Languages &
Department of History of Art &
Architecture

Date: September 22nd Thursday

Time:

① 1 : 00 — 1 : 45

② 2 : 15 — 3 : 00

Place: Alumni Hall 100 Lounge