Virginia M. Scott
Chair, Department of French and Italian

I. Changes to the minor in French:

Because of the revisions to the major in French, the following minor changes must be made to the minor in French:

1) The minor in French still requires 18 hours of course work.
2) Required courses (9 hours): 201W, 220, 221
3) One course (3 hours) from the Communications category
4) One course (3 hours) from the Traditions category.
5) One course (3 hours) from the Intersections category.
6) No courses taught in English may count for the minor.

II. Changes to the Honors Program in French

Because of the revisions to the major in French, the following minor change must be made to the Honors Program in French:

1) Students will have to complete the new 36-hour major. (Because the prose always said “complete the major,” this is not really a change to the Honors Program.)

III. Changes to the major in French and European Studies

Because of the revisions to the major in French, the following minor change must be made to the major in French and European Studies:

1) 27 hours of course work in French.
2) Required courses (9 hours): 201W, 220, 221
3) One course (3 hours) in Communications.
4) Two courses (6 hours) in Traditions
5) Three courses (9 hours) in Intersections
6) All courses must be taught in French