

Vanderbilt University Philosophy Department

“John F. Post: A Philosophical Memorial”

September 4, 3:15 (Central)

John Frederic Post taught in the Vanderbilt Philosophy Department for 35 years, up to his retirement in 2001. He authored The Faces of Existence (1987), Metaphysics: A Contemporary Introduction (1991), and From Nature to Norm (2008), along with many influential scholarly articles.

The Vanderbilt Philosophy Department will host a memorial of John’s philosophical work on September 4, at 3:15 (Central Time). The event will be a virtual meeting over Zoom, at the following address: <https://vanderbilt.zoom.us/j/6286060246>. You may also log into the meeting through Zoom at the following: 628 606 0246. Additionally, though the service will start at 3:15, the meeting room at the address will be open at 2:30, for those who wish to mingle or to make sure zoom works on their platforms.

Speakers: Professor Andrew Cling (University of Alabama, Huntsville)
Professor Derek Turner (Connecticut College)
Professor Jeffrey Tlumak (Vanderbilt University)